YOUNG LEADERS COUNCIL
VOLUNTEER DESCRIPTION

Become a leader in our community and join Family Building Blocks' Young Leaders Council, a group of young professionals dedicated to helping children and families. The Young Leaders Council volunteers work together to serve as an advisory and steering committee to increase awareness of our community's needs, promote the power of prevention, and inspire community involvement, while gaining critical leadership skills and building lasting relationships that foster teamwork and progress.

Location: Varies
FBB Point of Contact: Event Manager
Duration: One year
Time Commitment: A monthly meeting, committee activities, and event support

Skills & Qualifications:

- One-on-one orientation with the Young Leaders Council Chair
- FBB volunteer orientation training

Training Opportunities:

- All events that the Special Events Team participates in will have on-site training
- FBB volunteer orientation training

Benefits:

- Build community, network with other professionals, and exercise leadership skills
- Gain knowledge to promote the power of prevention and change lives
- Support children and families in our community